IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION.

WRIT PETITION NO.4911 OF 1999.

Rajmudra Co-operative Housing
Soceity Limited, Pune : Petitioners versus

State of Maharashtra & ors. : Respondents.

Shri P.J.Pawar, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Shri Vinay Sonpal, AGP, for Respondent No.1.

CORAM : R.M.S.KHANDEPARKAR &
NARESH H. PATIL, JJ.

DATED : 31st AUGUST 2006.

P.C.

1. The learned advocate for the petitioner has drawn attention to the Minutes of Order based on settlement arrived at between the parties which are filed in this Court in April 2001. It appears that after filing of the said Minutes of Order, the matter remained to be disposed of without any justification. Nobody is present for the Respondents. Since it is apparent from the Minutes of Order, filed in April 2001, that the parties have arrived at amicable settlement and accordingly the said Minutes of Order were placed on record, no purpose will be served to proceed for hearing the matter any-further and, therefore, the petition is required to be disposed of in terms of the said Minutes of Order. The said Minutes of Order are taken on record and marked Exhibit-X for identification. Petition stands accordingly disposed of in terms of the said Minutes of Order (Exhibit-X for identification). No order as to costs.
